Volunteers: We have found that knowledge of your organization and the concepts you are teaching helps to facilitate a successful presentation so we encourage you to have coworkers help you on the day of the festival. However, if that is impossible we will do our best to find a qualified volunteer to assist you in the classroom. Please check here if you will need a festival volunteer and let us know what it is you will need help with.

Scheduling: The Festival starts at 9:30 a.m. and ends at 3:30 p.m. Presenters will be scheduled for 4-6 sessions. Students arrive and leave in shifts with all 2000 being in attendance during the middle of the day making this when we need the heaviest concentration of presenters. However, all presenters will be scheduled a lunch break and lunch will be provided.
